Located in Greenville, Mississippi, J&J Transportation, LLC is owned and operated by Mr. Jack Jenkins. The firm offers freight transportation services as well as flatbed trucking. J&J Transportation, LLC has been in business for four years and is a newly certified DBE. The firm is also certified with the Mississippi Development Authority. Mr. Jenkins takes pride in delivering timely and quality service throughout Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Tennessee. He doesn't take all the credit for the hard work and time invested in his company. Ms. Renita Milton, his daughter is the secretary and plays an instrumental role in providing back office support for the firm.

Mr. Jenkins grew up around trucks as a young boy which helped shape his passion for the transportation industry. "As a young man I drove the mail truck and was fascinated by all the different places the job took me to, I just really enjoyed driving," said Mr. Jenkins. He also gained 13 years of experience driving for Fed-Ex before eventually establishing his trucking business. Over the years, the firm has worked with a variety of commercial clients. This experience has aided in building the firm's reputation as a capable and reliable transportation service provider. Currently, J&J Transportation, LLC is providing delivery services for a crop protection company in Greenville, MS and a Engineering firm also in Greenville. In reference to future projects, Mr. Jenkins stated that he will continuously and aggressively bid projects within his area of expertise and stay connected to the Continental Tire team, he recently engaged with at the February MDOT Pre-Bid conference for potential opportunities.

No two companies are alike, Mr. Jenkins highlights his firm's consistent and timely service to its customers as unique and distinguishing factors for his firm. "Trucking is my area and I always do my job to the best of my ability. My dad, Mr. Albert Jenkins always instilled in me to do my best," said Mr. Jenkins.

Speaking of guidance taken from his father, he gladly leaves advice to DBEs and small business owners alike. Jenkins says it is vital to stay focused on one thing and learn how to do it well before branching out to do something different and finally don't put off for tomorrow what you can do today. A MISSISSIPPI SUCCESS STORY

S&S Excavation, LLC

S&S Excavation, LLC is in Benton, MS and is owned and operated by Ms. Laura Sudbeck. The firm offers services that include excavation, demolition, grading, drainage, and other heavy and civil engineering. In addition, Ms. Sudbeck says that she is looking to expand her firm's services to include soil stabilization.

S&S Excavation, LLC recently finished up an MDOT project in Sharkey County that included adding turning lanes and an entrance to the Theodore Roosevelt Holt Collier Visitor Center. Another project (state aid) entailed Spanish Fort Road also located in Sharkey County. However, one of the firm's largest awarded contracts involved a $3,000,000 MDOT job in Pontotoc County. Future work for the firm will include placing a new apron for the Yazoo County Airport. The firm continues to grow and bid as a prime contractor on projects.

Owning a successful business is hard work but something Ms. Sudbeck enjoys. "I love what I do because I can work things around my family and one day leave the business to my kids," she said. Being a positive influence to those around her is important as well. Ms. Sudbeck says she has a stepdaughter and hopes to instill in her and other young women that they can do whatever they put their mind to.

Obtaining and sustaining a business as an entrepreneur can encompass many things. Ms. Sudbeck provided her top three factors to keeping her business successful and strong. "You must have the right employees, proper cash flow, and bonding capacity," said Ms. Sudbeck.

For more information on this firm, please forward all correspondence to Ms. Laura Sudbeck at 601-572-6661 or sandsexcavation@att.net.

Never Be All Things to All People

Styling Your Life Solutions

www.stylingyourlife.com

601-896-8900

There is a rule of thumb. In business, you cannot be all things to all people! You must find your strengths and differentiate your business from the competition. Once you do this, you have found your North Star.

Before I went into business, I observed successful businesses and those that were not successful. I have been asked so many times if I can do this or that. My answer is very clear. I do X well and I would be happy to refer someone if I know of anyone who can do Y. It's that simple. In business, I never try to be all things to all people!

You must define your strategic direction and stick to what you do best. Once you define your business strategy, you can set priorities for both your company and your management team.

A mentor of mine once asked me to write out my business strategy. Of course I thought I had one. Well, it was an eye opener. It was a lot of work! I found even though I had a business, I needed answer the following questions to have a business strategy:

- Why is the company in business?
- What are we best at doing?
- Who is my customer?
- What should I stop doing or start doing to be successful?
- What is the strategic direction which will generate success?

Your strategy is a summary of how your company will achieve its goals, meet expectations of the customer, and endure a competitive advantage in the marketplace. It's work to answer these questions; however, once you answer these questions, you will find businesses will be attracted to you because you have defined what you do best in delivering a top-notch product or service.

The Continental Tire Project Opportunities for Local Companies

Continental's Plant Operations Manager, Mr. Tobias Hacker was a guest speaker at the MDOT Pre-bid meeting on February 25th. He gave a status update on development in Clinton, Mississippi, sharing information about opportunities that potentially lay ahead for local service providers, vendors and suppliers. The project's first completed structure, the training center, opened its doors in November 2018. This facility is used for job interviews, employee on-boarding and training. Construction on the truck tire plant is in progress with an expected completion date set in late 2019.

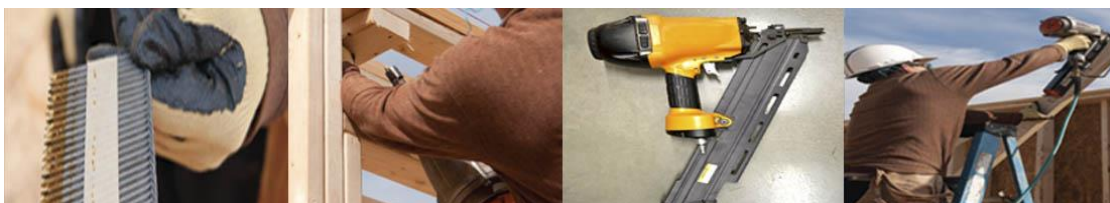

Mr. Hacker and his team work with local agencies including the Mississippi Development Authority to identify Mississippi vendors and suppliers for support. The development will present several areas of opportunity for local companies in the coming months and near future:

- Construction
- Transportation
- Maintenance
- Machine tooling & repair
- Material handling equipment
- Machine cleaning
- Waste Management
- Janitorial
- Hotel & Restaurants
- Canteen & Catering
- Events
- Training

To be considered for future Request for Proposals (RFPs) and other related opportunities, companies need to register at www.mississippi.org/continentalcontract. When the plant operations team identifies a need for a service or product, an RFP or related alert will be sent out to the database. Learn more about Continental at www.continental-corporation.com. OSHA Safety Tip of the Month!

Power Tool Safety

Appropriate personal protective equipment such as safety goggles and gloves must be worn to protect against hazards that may be encountered while using hand tools.

Workplace floors shall be kept as clean and dry as possible to prevent accidental slips with or around dangerous hand tools.

Power tools must be fitted with guards and safety switches; they are extremely hazardous when used improperly. The types of power tools are determined by their power source: electric, pneumatic, liquid fuel, hydraulic, and powder-actuated.

To prevent hazards associated with the use of power tools, workers should observe the following general precautions:

- Never carry a tool by the cord or hose.
- Never yank the cord or the hose to disconnect it from the receptacle.
- Keep cords and hoses away from heat, oil, and sharp edges.
- Disconnect tools when not using them, before servicing and cleaning them, and when changing accessories such as blades, bits, and cutters.
- Keep all people not involved with the work at a safe distance from the work area.
- Secure work with clamps or a vise, freeing both hands to operate the tool.
- Avoid accidental starting. Do not hold fingers on the switch button while carrying a plugged-in tool.
- Maintain tools with care; keep them sharp and clean for best performance.
- Follow instructions in the user's manual for lubricating and changing accessories.
- Be sure to keep good footing and maintain good balance when operating power tools.
- Wear proper apparel for the task. Loose clothing, ties, or jewelry can become caught in moving parts.
- Remove all damaged portable electric tools from use and tag them: "Do Not Use."
