A MISSISSIPPI SUCCESS STORY

MYRIAD ENGINEERING SOLUTIONS, LLC

Myriad Engineering Solutions, LLC is a small civil engineering firm located in Jackson, Mississippi and Terry, Mississippi. Established in 2017 by its Principal, Stephanie Sago Vivians, P.E., the firm provides professional services in civil engineering, roadway construction contract administration, environmental engineering services, preliminary and final plans and designs—roadway, traffic engineering, and storm water design for federal, state, and local government, established architectural and engineering firms, contractors, and private clients. “My firm offers the experience and production capacity of a large engineering firm, balanced with the direct principal involvement that only a small firm can provide,” said Vivians. Myriad Engineering Solutions, LLC also uses state-of-the-art analysis and design tools, providing greater value for clients and enhanced design and construction.

Vivians has over 23 years of experience as a licensed civil engineer. She previously worked with Neel-Schaffer for 22 years before establishing her own firm. Vivians is currently providing contract administration services for a Lakeland Old Canton Road Signal Project as well as Linde Dr. Sewer Emergency Project (City of Jackson). One of the largest projects the firm has successfully completed included a City of Jackson Bridge Rehabilitation Project (awarded contract value over $100,000). Building and maintaining positive work relationships is vital no matter the industry. Vivians continues to work with Neel-Schaffer; providing contract administration services.

Using the resources available, Vivians highlighted the value of MDOT DBE Supportive Services. “I am able to stay abreast of engineering projects. In addition, the MDOT Pre-Bid allows me the opportunity to network with other businesses as well as learn more about the procurement process amongst the various agencies around the state,” she said.

Vivians said she is fulfilled knowing that she is able to provide a service and can help meet her clients’ needs. Good customer service has helped her business grow. Over the past year, Myriad Engineering Solutions, LLC has increased revenue by 35 percent as well as added three employees to the team.

Sustaining any business can present challenges at times. However, Vivians provided key components to maintaining a growing and successful business. She says that good customer service, transparency, being knowledgeable of your finances and knowing how to bounce back from setbacks are all very important aspects.

For all of your civil engineering needs call Stephanie Vivians at 601-201-0027 or send your correspondence to ssvivians@gmail.com.

OSHA Safety Tip of the Month!

Exposure to Cold Temperatures

With the increase in merchandise sales during the holiday shopping season comes an increase in potential hazards for workers in the wholesale, transportation, and retail industries. Employers should take appropriate actions to protect workers. Safety is just as important once a truck reaches a destination as when it is on the open road. Companies should communicate operating procedures to keep workers safe, whether at the warehouse, dock, or construction site. Drivers should know about hazards that can result in serious or fatal injuries.

Parking

- Park on level ground and close to the receiving door or site
- Set and test brakes
- Place wheel chocks between the tandem wheels of the trailer
- Do not attempt to stop a rolling vehicle

Backing Up - Get out and look (GOAL)

- Use flashers, horn, and backup alarms
- Check both mirrors
- Roll down windows to hear
- Know the vehicle's blind spots
- Use a spotter
- Back up slowly
- Stand clear when opening doors for unloading

Coupling and Uncoupling

- Only trained workers should perform this procedure
- Ensure stable footing when releasing the fifth wheel or adjusting tandems
- Wear bright visible clothing
- Set parking brakes and perform tug test
- Keep clear of tires and frames
- Check for vehicular traffic near you.
